TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world."

This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY, has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or quip-ut. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College Street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Thursday, October 16th, 1873.

The Hon. L. W. Humphrey is understood to have perfected a scheme for the settlement, on favorable terms, of the State indebtedness. His plan includes all the outstanding liability, principal and interest. Experience and judgment, such as Col. Humphrey possesses, point him out as eminently fitted for the task he has taken in hand.

The Supreme Court of the United States assembled on the 13th. All the Justices were present except two. The court was presided over by Associate Justice Clifford.

As soon as the Court adjourned to pay the usual visit to the President, a meeting of the Bar was called to take action concerning the death of the late Chief Justice. Hon. Reverdy Johnson of Maryland, was appointed Chairman. In the course of his address, on taking the chair, Mr. Johnson said when Mr. Chase was appointed Chief Justice that the speaker had doubts as to Mr. Chase's capacity for the distinguished judicial position, but those misgivings had been removed by the decisions of those questions involving so many important points, growing out of our civil war, and which had from the very first commanded the approval of the profession and the country. The speaker closed with a warm eulogy of Mr. Chase's character as a man, a father, a friend and a Christian.

A committee was appointed which reported resolutions of respect, which were agreed to, and the meeting adjourned.

Annexation.

The story of the gentleman who had lived in Chihuahua for many years, as related by the St. Louis Times is certainly romantic. According to this, on the completion of the Pacific Railway, which is expected to take place near El Paso, the discharged laborers, estimated at about fifteen thousand, are to be armed and organized, and marched into the Northern Mexican States. The States of Chihuahua, Coahuila, Sonora and New Leon are the territory to be invaded, and it is expected that they will offer no resistance; rather that they will look favor on the proposed revolution.

The strangest part of the story remains to be told. President Grant and Tom Scott—he of the "chartered monopolies"—are strongly in favor of this scheme. Who has been assiduous enough to pump the President till he disclosed such flimsy views, is not stated. But poor Tom Scott, not having enough to do in attending to the multifarious duties of his position, is dragged in as an endorser of such a high handed violation of international faith.

After the annexation takes place, which is a part of the attempt. It is supposed that the advantages arising from it will silence all objections.

Is it too soon to talk about the centennial? Evidently some folks do not think so, for many suggestions are afloat as to the proper manner in which the one hundredth birthday of the nation shall be celebrated.

The subject is a noble one. No grander theme has ever inspired the poet or the orator, than the recounting the progress of these United States from their infancy to their lusty youth. If the subject of the foundation of military Rome gave a scope to the genius of Virgil, how much more sublime will be the epic which celebrates and describes the peaceful growth of our free Republic? And not only its advancement in wealth and arts, but in the application of these principles of enlightened statesmanship to the amelioration of the condition of mankind. This is the true greatness of America; that we have set an example to the world of a self governing people, where justice is dispensed, not as a boon, but as a right to all, and where common sense is the interpreter of the rights of man.

We trust that all will bring to the centennial among other offerings, a proud and thankful heart for the greatness of our country.

This is a story from California. If told of any other country, we'd doubt it. A fine bay horse was found suspended one morning recently from a cherry tree by the neck and dead. He had been left hitched to a branch of the tree, which had grown so rapidly during the night that it raised him off his feet and hung him. And they don't think of fencing in California.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

The last issue of the postal cards shows a marked improvement in the paper-finish, and printing. The daily orders are very large, amounting from a half to a million a day. On Saturday last 1,800,000 were issued to postmasters. All orders are filled now as soon as received.

The injunction restraining the St. Louis Insurance Company from continuing business has been dissolved, the court deciding by plaintiff's own showing that the company is solvent. Renewed energy will characterize the efforts of all the officials. The company's course from this time will be progressive.

The insurgents of Cartagena attribute the defeat of their squadron solely to the cowardice of Contreras, who ordered a retreat against the wishes of the crews. They declare that he will not be suffered to command the fleet again. Their vessels sailed out of the harbor for a second fight, but finding the government fleet prepared for action retired.

Mrs. Virginia L. Minor, formerly President of the Missouri State Woman's Suffrage Association, and a leading spirit in the woman's movement, has notified the Board of Assessors of St. Louis that she refuses to make them a return of her property subject to taxation on the ground that, under a decision of the Supreme Court of this State, she being a femme coverte, can not own the money wherewith to pay the taxes thereon; and further, because she thinks that taxation without representation the sum of all tyrannies.

Aristarchi Bey, the newly appointed envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Imperial Majesty the Sultan of Turkey, was yesterday presented to the President by the Secretary of State, upon which occasion he made the following address:

MR. PRESIDENT: I have the honor to place in the hands of your Excellency the letters whereby his Imperial Majesty the Sultan, my august sovereign, accredits me as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Republic of the United States of America.

The Sublime Porte, Mr. President, attaches the highest importance to the friendly relations which so happily exist between the Ottoman Empire and the great people among whom I am proud to represent my country. It has expressly charged me to make the maintenance and development of these relations my constant study, and entertain the hope that the good will of your Excellency and of your government will assist me in the accomplishment of this duty.

I have likewise received order to express to you, Mr. President, the assurance of the very high esteem with which your eminent qualities have inspired the Sultan, my august master, and of the sincere wishes of his Imperial Majesty for the prosperity of the United States, who are contributing so powerfully to the progress of the world at large.

The President responded as follows: ARISTARCHI BEY: I am gratified to receive you as the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Imperial Majesty the Sultan of Turkey.

This government certainly has at least the same occasion as the Government of the Sublime Porte to attach importance to the relations between the two countries. Those relations are commercially mutually advantageous and have long been regulated by treaties. Many citizens of the United States also reside or travel in the Turkish dominions, in whose welfare their Government must necessarily have a lively concern. You must be assured that any efforts on your part toward strengthening and improving the good understanding between the United States and your sovereign will be met by me in a corresponding spirit.

The Newbern Times narrates thusly: We do not claim to be wiser than other men, nor are we superstitious; neither are we ashamed to confess our firm belief in the signal judgment of God as in the case of the injured aeronaut at Kinston on Monday last. Men, who for the gain of money, have no other regard for the Sabbath than to use it for travel, and in the preparation of some gew gaw, or the mending of a balloon, for the momentary pleasure of the lovers of marvellous things, must expect to meet such ends. We have sympathy and feeling for the man in his suffering, but at the same time we cannot ignore the fact that this accident was the effect of the cause produced by himself. To some men these judgments may pass unnoticed, because of their (to them) delay, but they are as sure in their infliction as that every man must meet death.

An unpopular "ism" with everybody—The rheumatism.

A PROCLAMATION, By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanksgiving for blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this 14th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President: HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

The Weldon News says: The Express office in this place was a real menagerie on last Sunday. A box of live monkeys—thought to be alive from their capers and antics—a couple of birds of fine plumage—a nest of snakes—all for the State Fair went up the road Monday. The monkeys and birds, valued at $500 were presented to the Fair Gift Concert by the renowned showman, old John Robinson.

The exhibition of the Great Eastern

Circus last night was a decided success,

as the densely packed throng of delight spectators testified to by their repeated applause and other demonstrations of pleasure. It is asserted by the managers that more than eight thousand persons were admitted to the pavilion last night, which packed it to its utmost capacity so that no more available room could be found, and that great numbers of people were turned away, unable to get in. Who talks of hard times.

A SMALL party of invited guests,

among whom is our Senior, under the care of that railroad man, Captain W.

J. Calais, went this morning to Waccanaw Lake on a new first-class passenger coach just built at the shops of the W. C. & A. R. R. Co., at this place and intended to be run on that line. The party started off in high glee and in anticipation of a delightful time, and returned at 2:30 p. m. The new spring bolster, patented by Major Anderson and now in use for the first time was voted a success, and the occasion every way delightful. An extended notice will appear to-morrow.

When Shakespeare's mother wished

him to confess a theft, what distinguished character did she hold up before him? William Tell.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Mild.

— Gold is 108 1/2.

— A little rain would help matters

now.

— The wise say that we are to have a chilly rain.

— Why don't you try the artificial stone pavement?

— It is sad to see so much money going out of the city.

— Bring on your crops. Farmers should help the merchants who helped them.

— Won't some hat dealer bring on some stylish hats large enough for a full sized man's head.

— The street cars are a great convenience, but we think the management

could be improved.

— Superior Court next Monday and its array of witnesses. Poor chaps, we pity the whole of them.

— It is to be hoped we can now have a little quiet. We have been terribly demonized by two circuses in one week.

— D. A. Smith & Co. are selling a great amount of furniture. Their establishment is an ornament to the city.

— The question of specie payments is agitating the public mind. Greenbacks would be good enough for us—if we could get them.

— The State Fair is a grand success.

We think much of this is due to Capt.

Fulghum. He is a wide-awake man, who knows how to use printer's ink and to get up an excitement.

— Promptly at 3 o'clock this afternoon the fire bell sounded and the entire department appeared for drill. The whirr of the steamers is heard at work at the river as we go to press.

— A small row yesterday morning on the circus grounds, outside the tent, caused a small stampede among the spectators, who preferred to see a fight

instead of ground and lofty tumbling.

There's no accounting for taste.

— Read the advertisements, and patronize only those establishments which advertise. The man who does not advertise his business, only expects to do a small business, and of course must charge a larger per centage than one doing a large trade.

THE Bank of New Hanover will lay

the Schillinger artificial stone on the sidewalks adjacent to its new building.

Work will begin to-morrow. It is to be hoped that others will take example and secure the opportunity for good pavements, while Captain Brain is in the city, as it can be done at one third of the cost of natural stone.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor

presiding.

Martin Hall, disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs.

Green Lewis, disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs.

Wm. Johnson, disorderly conduct, was fined $20 and costs.

Edward Mosley, for refusing to assist

a police officer, was dismissed on payment of costs.

Henry Sherman, on charge for fighting, case continued until to-morrow.

GREAT EASTERN CIRCUS.—No one who witnessed the immense throng at the circus last night, would have dreamed that a panic has lately swept over the land, or that "there was no money in the South." Had the most energetic and persistent canvassers worked for a month to raise funds for poor suffering

Shreveport or Memphis, we do not believe the amount could have been raised

that we paid last night at that circus.

The show is a fine one, and worthy of patronage, though many of the old time popular acts are omitted, such as the hurdle act, bareback riders, etc. Miss

Lake's performances were especially no-ticable, and we have no doubt but they will do a good business up the Central road. We do hate though, most awfully, to see so much money go out of the country. It is wonderful to see so vast a throng of people packed under a canvass, sit for two hours, and then leave, without an accident or other disturbance. It speaks well for the management and also for our people.

The Weldon News tells this romantic story: A few months ago Mr. J. A.

Monroe, of Little River Academy, Cumberland county, N. C., advertised for a female teacher. The advertisement was quickly answered by Miss Eoline P.

QUARANTINE NOTICE.

The following Quarantine Regulations will be in force from and after the 1st of June, 1873, until further notice:

1st. All vessels from Ports South of Cape Fear will come to the Visiting Station near "Deep Water Point," and await the inspection of the Quarantine Physician.

2d. All vessels having sickness on board on arrival, or having had sickness during the voyage, are required to come to the Station for inspection, without regard to the Port from whence they sailed.

3d. Vessels not included as above will proceed to Wilmington without detention.

4th. Pilots are especially enjoined to make careful enquiry, and if not satisfied with the statements of the Captain, or if the vessel is in a filthy condition, they will bring the vessel to the Station for further examination.

5th. Pilots wilfully violating the Quarantine laws are subject to forfeiture of their branch, Masters of vessels to a fine of Two Hundred ($200) Dollars a day for every day they violate the Quarantine laws, and all other persons are liable for each and every offence.

6th. All vessels subject to visitation under these regulations will set flags in the main rigging—port side.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh, Sept. 23, 1873.

A PROCLAMATION

BY THE GOVERNOR.

WHEREAS, Official information has been received at this Department that FRANK MALPASS, late of the county of New Hanover, stands charged with the murder of Edward J. Walker of said county; and that the said Malpass has fled the State, or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him:

Now, therefore, I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do hereby issue this Proclamation offering a reward of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the arrest and delivery of the said Frank Malpass to the Sheriff of New Hanover County, in the City of Wilmington, and I do hereby call on all officers of the law and all good citizens of the State to aid in bringing said criminal to justice.

Done at our City of Raleigh, on the 23d day of September, A. D. 1873, and I, S. in the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.

TOD R. CALDWELL.

By the Governor, J. B. NEATHY, Private Secretary.

DESCRIPTION.—Frank Malpass is a native of North Carolina, five feet eight inches high, aged 25 years, sandy hair, smooth face, little or no beard, and small blue eyes. sep-25-law14w
